The staff of this yearbook wish particularly to thank Bing Crosby for his kindly interest and assistance in the conduct of L'Acadien's Beauty Contest. To have his days crowded to the last minute with the business of being a national favorite, and still find time for these pages, is generous indeed. We are sincerely grateful.

NINETEEN THIRTY-SEVEN

“PAGLIACCI”

(On Hearing Jagel Sing)

Silver streaks on the pasty mask of a clown!

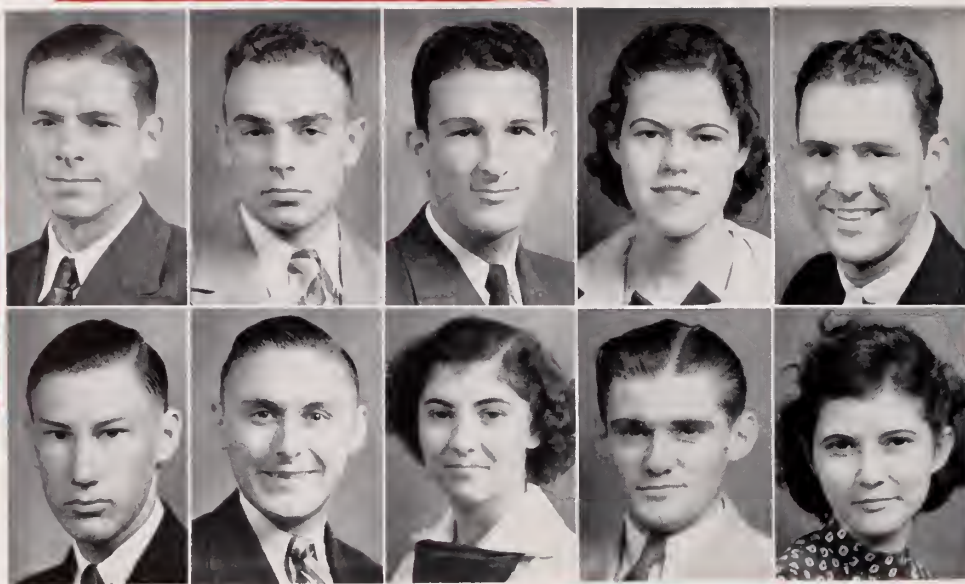

How can one say that life is good or life is bad—when life is all things? It is a thing of laughter and sweat and tears—a sad sweet song of love, a melancholy melody of tender pain. To live—to love—to suffer!

Never is happiness so dear as when the soul is crying in its loneliness, striving for something it can never have. Never is laughter so sweet as when it is washed with tears. Oh that pain, that is the most sublime gift that life can offer.

That beauty that is so great that the soul seems expanded into the whole infinity of existence—alone, eternal!

—Scribblers' Script.

UNFINISHED SYMPHONY

Deep down within us all there is a melody. Sometimes it rises from its tranquil, even tempo to a mighty, crashing crescendo, and it seems that at last the Symphony is going to reach the Finis. Always, however, The Great Director signals with His baton and the song softens into a swelling largo. Often, the Melody is light and refreshing, as a thousand reeds and woodwinds race through endless polkas. At other times, the Director motions for a solo and the haunting, mysterious strain almost reaches perfection in tone and execution. Frequently, in moments of black despair, the melody descends to deeper octaves and the soul trembles to the vibration of the melancholy pitch. It never remains in these morose keys, for always the Director motions, and other instruments rescue the song. There is one moment, however, when even the Master cannot save the song, and cannot spare the player. This is the moment when the instrument, worn from playing countless cadenzas, shatters into a thousand pieces. In the great Unfinished Symphony the passing is but lightly noted — perhaps by other players very near. The Great Director always replaces, for there are many with Melodies who patiently await a chair.

—Scribblers' Script.

IN THE TEMPLE

Lang ago, in far Judea
Through the Temple's prayerful hush,
Through its glories and its vastness
Far removed from life's mad rush,
Passed a poor and humble couple,
Naticed only by a few,
As to Gad their Child they offered,
And ta God paid hamage true.

He was poor, she yaung and tender,
But the Child was wondrous fair,
Ah! sa fair that even great men
Paused awhile ta look or stare.
He ta them was but an infant,
Tiny, helpless, paar, and weak;
But twa hearts, to grace responsive,
Knew Him and His Mather meek.

"Naw, Oh, Lard! dismiss Thy servant"
Simeon in a rapture cried,
"Far I've seen my God and Saviaur,
Joseph's jay,—His Mather's pride;
A Light He'll be unta the Gentiles
The Glary af Thy people taa,
But ta Mary, He'll bring sarraw
Which will pierce her through and through."

Tenderly he toak the Infant
In his trembling, weak, old arms,
Lovingly he gazed upan Him,
Captivated by His charms.
Anna alsa saw and knew Him,
Spake of Him to all she met;
Some believed,—but athers answered,
"The Redeemer comes nat yet".

—Ruth Lennie-Smith.

HERBERT CRYAR

Cryar is a senior in the College of Liberal Arts. Cryar has led the Bulldog cheers for the past two years. He is a member of the Sigma Pi Alpha Fraternity.

ELIZABETH EUBANK

"Liz" is just a sophomore and has led the Bulldog cheers for one year. She is a member of the Nu Sigma Kappa Sorority.

CECIL THOMPSON

Thompson is a senior in the College of Education. He has led the cheers of Southwestern only one year. He is a member of the Phi Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

MIRIAM NICHOLSON

Miriam was Freshman Cheerleader and Varsity Cheerleader for one year. She is a member of and also president of the Delta Epsilon Nu Sorority.

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater, beloved old Southwestern,
Pride of our Southland so fair!
Oaks and pines and sweet magnolia's beauty,
Show forth thy charm so rare.

Alma Mater, for honor, truth and wisdom
Thy halls for aye shall stand;
Loyal sons and daughters sing proclaiming
Here's my heart and hand.

THENES HAJECATE

"Mick the Greek" is the title. "Mick" was captain of the 1936 edition of the Red and White football squad and filled in the right guard position. He is a senior in the College of Liberal Arts and never more will he be seen whooping up his war-cries and peping up a Southwestern grid team. No coach could fail to shed a tear over the graduation of a player of such capability—he could smear the greatest ball carriers for losses and rip open the strongest of lines. We shall never forget "Mick"—and least of all, his smile will perpetuate in our memories. The world's best wishes to you, "Mick"!

J. Y. DUNCAN

"Jerry", who is one of Southwestern's most versatile athletes, calls Alexandria his home town. He has one more year of pigskinning and will again handle a terminal post. J. Y. has lettered in three different sports and chalks up a high scholastic record as well.

VERNON TURNER

When Jimmy White, S.L.I.'s long distance kicker, was disabled, it was Turner who answered Coach Wilbank's "prayers". Vernon displayed unusual punting ability as a Sophomore and, according to his past performances, this coupled with his back-field playing, will help make football history for Southwestern in coming years. Stick to it, Vernon, we are wishing you luck!

LAWRENCE JACOBS

"Joke" has crooned his "swan song" as far as the gridiron is concerned, and never more will this big tackle, stomped with number "44", be seen crushing and rushing apponents of Southwestern. Big "Jake" was at his best this year despite an early-season injury to his leg. Keep up the good work, "Joke," and may success crown all of your future efforts!

RALPH WEBER

"Cowboy" Weber is another of several Southwestern stars turned out by a Texas High School. His has been the task of holding down the center position and right well has he fulfilled the job. Here's to a successful forthcoming season, Weber.

BILLY GARTH

From the pine-clad hills of Mississippi to the "cane breaks" of Southwestern Louisiana is a long distance, but that is no handicap to William Price "Billy" Garth. "Billy" is no galloping giant, but he is a "field general" of no mean ability. General "Billy" is only a junior and judging from his initial venture, he should be an outstanding figure in next year's Bulldog "brain trust".

WEEDMAN DUHE

A good, fast, little mon is always appreciated on a football squad, but a good, fast, big mon such as "Zuzu" is much more desirable. Duhe has one more year of gridironing before the curtain falls. May that last year be a worthy climax to his long career at Southwestern.

VERNON BELL

'Tis a sad story when the first page of "Dixie's" varsity football record is read. "Dixie" received a serious shoulder injury early in the grid campaign and was forced out of action when he was progressing rapidly. However, his heart and soul was always with the team. Here's more power to you next season, "Dixie"!

STANLEY CRESAP

"City Slicker" is what some would surname Stanley—but not us—we call him "Greased Lightning". Stanley is probably the lightest gridster on the roster but for what he lacks in weight, he accounts for in speed and vividness. This agile youth has created many flashes of thrills by his lightning-like dashes.

ROBERT DeROUEN

Zipp——no this is nat a misprint—-it's only our mimical expressing of what happens when "Bob" carries the pigskin and gallaps away. "Bob", a loyal san of New Iberia, is a will-o-the-wisp in the braken field and his elusive tactics gave many a "Sli" oppanent the "heebie-jeebies" last season. "Bobby" has and will ably perform his duties.

RANDOLPH LOVE

Here's anather mighty mite from that hot-bed of faatball stars, Alexandria's Baltan High. Little "Ranny" displaces only five feet and six inches of atmasphere but that daesn't say what amount of territory he can caver. "Ranny" shaws promises and should be a "wizzard" next season.

ASHTON BOURGEOIS

Playing his initial year of varsity faatball far South-western, "Blackie" had a most pramising season. Should injuries dadge him, his future as a "pigskin tater" is assured.

HORACE ADKINS

"Little Sharty" is the brother of the inimitable Aylmer "Sharty" Adkins and calls Homer, Louisiana, his chief stamping grounds. He's as fast as Jesse Owens; he's as elusive as a flea and can spin like a whirlwind. "Little Sharty" filled a halfback berth until, well, old man "Catastrophe" swung his scythe and left him with an ailing back. He's back on his feet again, and, watch him cut capers the coming grid season.

HENRY WILLIAMS

Henry Williams is his name, but he only answers to "Tubby". Another Homer High School star, and 180-pound hammer-'em-down tackler—that's "Tubby". He's capable of generating steam-roller power with his bulky body and more than once we have seen him crush rival linemen. Williams has developed a surprising coordination of power and speed that will make him a dangerous man in any game, on any field, at any time.

JOE CRUTHIRDS

A war tank on the attack—that's Joe Cruthirds. Joe has worn the red and white slip-over only a year now and regardless of that we predict two more successful seasons. Here's luck Joe!

DELBERT JACKSON

Here's J. Y.'s running mote—Delbert Jackson. Delbert has just tucked away his second and by far his most successful football season of his career at the flank position. He is a marvel on defense, and a sure tackler and crack pass snatcher. Adding the "chority marker" is also one of his specialties.

SIDNEY LeBLANC

LeBlanc is the nome. Sidney LeBlanc and he's from Abbeville, Louisiana, too. A distance runner by birth, he never tires on the football field. "Sid" is a pugnacious type of guard, who charges with surprising speed and is best when the going is toughest. He's calm and capable on defense, knows how to use his weight in blocking and tackling, and aptly fills the role of running guard on offense. What more can one ask of a guard.

VERNE WHITE

Verne did not get into every game but when he did play, he put every ounce of his 157 pounds into every move he made. He is the roving type of center, a relentless spotter of forward passes and a power in the center section of the line. We'll be pulling for you again next fall—keep it up!

JAMES WHITE

A junior in the Commerce Department, "Jimmy" White is what most proud parents expect of their college-going son. This Loke Charles boy takes his studies seriously and, to be exact, duplicates his scholastic efforts on the oval-back turf of "Sli". "Jimmy" is a deadly blocker; a marvel on defense; and is incomparable in the kicking division. He is an invaluable man and, all we can say is, watch him go next year.

HARVEY GARDINER

Harvey Gardiner cleaving through his first year as varsity tackle, has chalked up a fine record. He has size, power, agility and now with a year of collegiate football tucked away, he should stand out in the line next season. Harvey likes boxing and mixed that with his football—that is, in accordance with the rules. He uses his right to smear the blockers and closes the ball carrier in his left. That's coordination!

JAMES SANFORD

Once again we come to a position which seldom received the cheers and hero-worship of the crowd. The tackles make up that group and among them we find the gigantic but amiable Sanford. Docile "Sondy" transferred to S.L.I. from a junior college and took up the Bulldog cause almost instantly. But, alas, every knight does not reach his goal, and, in this case, "Sondy" suffered a broken arm just when things were running smoothly. He appeared very promising this year and indications point to an increasing unit of power next year.

THURMAN GENTRY

"Snow" is the proud possessor of a dual personality. On the campus he is a slow-going type who smiles lazily at the pros (and the feds), but on the gridiron he is a fast elusive back. With one year of added grid experience he should have a very successful season next fall.

BILL WALLACE

Bill Wallace, even though only a junior in college, will no longer carry the Red and White colors of Southwestern into battle. Bill has had one year of football at a Junior College and, reluctantly, he must abdicate his role as stor end for the Bulldogs. He, true to the spirit of all "Cottontops", has shown spunk and ability on the gridiron. We'll miss him on the football field, but we'll welcome him into the ranks of the onlookers.

DAN TEXADA

Still another Alexandrian who, like the others, once roomed the turtle-backed field of Holton High—this one is a shining example of what a shifty ball-carrier should be like; and his name is Daniel Texada. He has two more sessions in which to exhibit his grid wares as a spinner, end-sweeper, and pass-flinger. More power to you on the gridiron next year, Don.

JOE HERPIN

Here is a tower of power, a 220-pound tackle who bears the nominal brand of Joseph Ovey Herpin. Joe hurled defiance at rival warriors and held his post true to form. Prognosticators say, "A large, dark man will cross your path—beware of him". This omen is applicable here, so beware, rivols of S.L.I.—Herpin may be that "large, dark man".

ELIX DECOUX

In high school, Elix appeared headed for big things, i. e., in the football way, and it looks like "collection day" is just around the corner. He should improve as he gains experience. We are predicting that, next fall, Elix will begin "collecting". Here's hoping that he collects two-fold!

The annals of the 1936 football team of Southwestern Louisiana Institute showed more losses than victories but one thing is certain and that is that the battered Bulldog eleven gave its best always and very often against tremendous odds. It is a sad dismal story when the records are searched to find that what promised to be a highly successful season was marred by the stigma of defeats upon defeats and an abundance of injuries diminished the strength and power of the greatly weakened Bulldog squad. On two occasions did the Bulldogs rise to the zenith of their effectiveness and that was early in the fall when the red and white players defeated Lamar College and Sam Houston of Texas. For next year, however, the chances for a winning club appear extremely bright for with the acquisition of new players and the return of many veterans, the Bulldogs should be very formidable and powerful next season.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Under the guidance of Coach Eddie Dauglos, the Bullpups enjoyed a successful season. Getting off to a good start by defeating the Louisiana College Frosh. They were set back the following week, however, when they were defeated by Jennings High School. It was in the game against the Barksdale Aviators that the Bullpups really found themselves. They won easily by a score of 38 to 0. Their final game was against the Louisiana State Normal Freshmen whom they tied with a score of 7 to 7.

Among the most promising candidates for the 1937 varsity are: Abel, Abercrombie, Blonchord, Brumfield, Comp, Cotelino, Kelly, Minner and Tillmon.

Our basketball season turned out to be quite a nightmare.

Thrills, close scores, and nerve tingling games were plentiful throughout the season, but our team failed to have that necessary something that it takes to win consistently.

There were some men who were expected to perform better this season, but somehow they didn't and it meant the difference between winning and losing certain contests.

In other games, our men put up a gallant fight throughout, but the opposition was much above them and it was a hopeless task.

Some of the outstanding features were the consistent aggressive defensive tactics and offensive drives of the sophomores, Diamond Young, Leigh Stewart, and Andrus Martinez. With these men and Aubrey Bacon, who has shown up well in spring training games, to form the backbone of our "up and coming" undefeated freshman team, the outlook is considerably brighter for next season.

Captain J. Y. Duncan. Junior. He gave his best efforts towards making the basketball schedule a success. Mr. Duncan has in basketball, as in all other games of life, done his best—effort that was accepted and appreciated by the team, the coach and the student body. The respect held for him by the team is shown in their having elected Duncan Captain—a position which he ably filled.

"Dixie" Bell. Substitute Forward. Bell, a junior, was not fortunate enough to make the first string, playing under a football injury handicap which seemed to affect his game immensely. He was ready, when the time came, to go into the game and fight for Southwestern. What more can we ask of anyone?

Woodrow Dixon. Sophomore. Dixon played forward on the team and should have been one of the best forwards on the team. Dixon, a sophomore, showed streaks of ability which makes Southwestern appreciate knowing that he has two more years of varsity basketball.

Fred Cowart. Forward. Cowart is Mississippi's representative on the Bulldog Quintet. He held down the forward position for Coach Reinhardt's Red and White Cagers and proved to be the most consistent goal shooter of the club. Fred is a senior in the College of Liberal Arts and besides being a success on the basketball court, he rates high in his scholastic work.

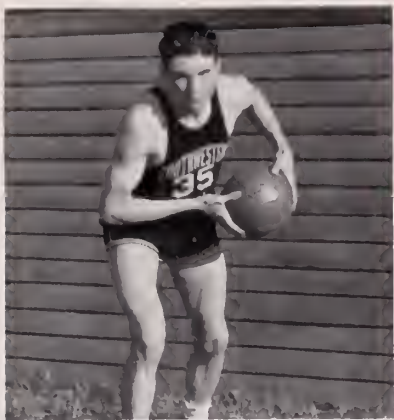

William Guidry. Senior. He was a substitute center—a center who was willing to get in and fight with determination to do or die. During the last year he fought valiantly for our school. It is such men as this one, that the school regrets losing, though we realize that their sojourn with us is finished.

Earl Evans. He is a sophomore whose caging ability came to light during his freshman year. Evans will be at our college two more seasons, and we appreciate knowing that such a player can be depended upon again to take an active part in the caging contests of the two oncoming years. In the first few games he was outstanding, but, due to illness, he lacked the strength the remainder of the season to play college ball.

Leslie Gaudet. Senior. The dependability of this forward makes us regret that he is finishing Southwestern this year. Gaudet was a Bulldog whose bite was frequently felt by the many opponents. A small man making up for his height with determination and speed exemplifies Gaudet.

Raoul Landry. Forward. A product of Lafayette who fits the title, "local boy makes good", is Raoul Landry. "Caw", which is his popular misname, is over six feet tall and is probably the most agile man seen on the Bulldog floor for many years. Raoul, as usual, stood out during the basketball season, and, what he lacked in goal shooting, he ably made up by his defense work.

Andrus Martinez. Sophomore. His outstanding ability as a Guard on our caging team was quickly noticed by Coach Reinhardt. His ability as a player is exceptional, and it will be put to good use during the oncoming seasons. His achievement in basketball are overshadowed only by his work as a track man.

Harry Saucier. Senior Center. Besides being one of the outstanding representative students on our campus, Harry held down the center position on the basketball squad most of the season. He put everything he had into each game he played.

Leigh Stewart. Sophomore Center. Many things can be said about Leigh. He is a true sportsman and a real basketball player. Leigh is only a sophomore but managed to earn a first-team berth near the termination of the season. He is a great all-around cager and is especially adept in the ability to hit the basket. Stewart will be back for two more years, and he will probably play the center position for the 1937-38 Bulldag aggregation, if he continues to improve and have the aggressiveness that he showed us in the last three games.

Diamond "Shine" Young. Sophomore Guard. "Shine's" playing received favorable comment during the season. Young played his part successfully in making the basketball team as much of a success as it was. Southwestern looks forward to his cooperation in making the squad a future success. Aggressiveness and fight made him the flashy player that he was.

HAROLD BROCK

Brock proved to be one of the pluckiest fighters on the team during the strenuous campaign of the past season. A very effective puncher and a polished boxer, Brock usually entered the ring with determination and usually came out with the decision. He is only a sophomore in college and with added experience, he should be invaluable to the team next year.

WILFRED CARSON

"Moonshine" Corson, a senior in Agriculture, hails from Pine Prairie. He was an understudy to the indomitable Carlo Listi, and proved his worth when in the squared ring.

EARL CLEMENT

Clement was the safety man on Coach Mitchell's boxing team. He was never called upon to fight this season, but he was always ready to do so. He showed good promise this season and is expected to do well next year.

COOPER DOUCET

"Wildcat" is the name of this pugilist. He lived up to his record as a champion, having twice won the C.M.T.C. championship of Texas. Doucet, after a slow start, developed into one of the most brilliant and scrappy boxers ever to wear the red and white. He is a junior and has another year of collegiate leather-punching.

HARVEY GARDINER

An Opelousas product—one of the toughest heavyweights ever to wear the red and white. He likes to mix punches and he can take it and dish it out as well. His task was hard because his weight includes some real large scrappers. He is only a Sophomore and in the next two years he will no doubt prove himself invaluable to Coach Mitchell's boxing squad.

CARLO LISTI

The most agile, the cleverest and the most consistent boxer in Southern intercollegiate boxing circles is this Patterson boy, Carlo Listi. Twice holder of the S.A.A.U. Championship of the 135-pound class. Listi has participated in over twenty-three fights and has not as yet been defeated. He was the gentleman that the opponent just couldn't hit—but this gentleman always pushed his leather into what turned out to be a "jaw-breaker".

C. C. MATT

Here we see a real camer, C. C. Matt. Matt is a well-timed jabber and tharaughly versed in boxing tactics and is one of the most dangeraus "pugs" of the squad. Caach Mitchell was mare than pleased with the sensational wark of Matt, especially his remarkable development af punching power.

DAN MESTAYER

Captain Dan Mestayer is a terrific puncher and hails from the city af boxing champions—New Iberia. An exterminatar, a killer—are but a few af the epithets. Captain Mestayer staad out as a baxter and his paralyzing blows still echa and re-echo in the ears af every S.L.I. fistic fan. His graduation will leave a big hale in the setup af the boxing team.

DONALD OHLMEYER

This glove-swinger proved his warth as a sub ta C. A. Daucet and, even though he participated in one bout, he shawed up exceptionally well. Being a freshman with one year af experience he should be af value ta future S.L.I. boxing teams.

RALPH WEBER

Weber—a Houston, Texas cowboy—lacked speed but possessed a hammer-like jab which left its ill effects on his ring rivals. Weber has another year of intercollegiate boxing and will probably be the stand-out man on the Bulldog club.

BRUNSON WRIGHT

Brunson didn't participate in any intercollegiate match, but right along he gained valuable experience and should rate high next year.

ALBERT ZOCK

"General" Zock is what the students call him. He was the showman of the team. He could make a professional show the green tinge of an amateur. Zock, who beside being a boxer, is an all-around athlete. He graduates this year and will be lost to the Bulldogs next season.

HARLAN WILLEY

Harlan was a late-comer to Southwestern, but the lack of conditioning did not interfere with his ring prowess. He is gifted with a great pair of arms and shoulders and sturdy pair of legs which brought him many ring victories and a reputation of being "the amateur fighter with the professional technique". He punches with shoulder action behind each mitt, and after he strikes, his opponents know it.

Varsity Track

For the third successive year, Coach Browne's track team was crowned the champions of the Third District S.I.A.A. track and field meet. A new record was established at this meet by "Cow" Landry in the 440-yard dash, the time being 49.2 seconds. This made the eighth S.I.A.A. record now held by a Southwestern athlete.

To begin the dual meet competition, the Bulldogs were defeated by a strong L.S.U. team by the score of 89 to 28. The Bulldogs rallied, however, and a few days later defeated the Louisiana Tech track team by a 69 to 43 score. The next competition encountered by the Bulldogs was a triangle meet at Natchitoches with Louisiana State Normal and Stephen F. Austin. The Bulldogs reached their peak in this meet by running up a total of 70 points against Normal's score of 42 and Stephen F. Austin's score of 28.

FRESHMAN TRACK

The Southwestern Freshman Track Team made a fair showing at the S.I.A.A. Meet in winning second place. The freshmen defeated Louisiana State Normal Frosh in their only dual meet by the score of 68 to 36.

The outstanding yearlings were Adkins, Dixon, Domingue, Martinez, Ridge, Roger and Stirling. These men are expected to fill vacancies in the varsity due to graduation.

CRESAP

Another of Southwestern's smoller stors, who runs both the high and low hurdles for better than the overage.

DUCREST

Ducrest, a potential stor. "Duke" runs the quarter, half, and mile, and is copoble of a fine performance in any one of the three.

JACKSON

This was "Jack's" first year of varsity track, but he will be depended on in the future to fill the shoes of the departed stars. A very capable performance is expected of him.

JOHNSTON

Jae, as alternate captain, has established a record of a competitive spirit. One of Jae's mast impasing wins was the 4.28.2 mile, a new recard made in the S.I.A.A. meet. Jae also has ambitions to break the S.I.A.A. 880 mark. He is a star performer in the mile and half-mile events.

ORILLION

"Captain Toby", the boy who made most of the total points, a hard worker, who started from the bottom up and lived the sport he loved. Holder of several relay records. A fifty flat quarter-miler and has been credited with twenty-four flat in the low hurdles.

TOUCHTON

Touchton, a hard worker with an unbreakable spirit. J. W. spends his time throwing the discus and "shot". Next year we expect great things of him.

TOKEN of Excellence

GRADUATION . . . major moment in the life of each of us because it marks an achievement, culminates years of intensive preparation.

The perfection of a great printing plant marks an achievement, too — a half century devoted to a standard of craftsmanship and service.

In school, the sheepskin, the cap and gown, denote a token of excellence . . . in business, its counterpart is the esteem and trust placed in us by clients and associates.
